8 UBC EMERGENCY PROCEDURES

www.emergency.ubc.ca

EMERGENCIES

1. Call Emergency Number: 9-1-1
Specify whether you need Police, Ambulance or Fire.
Have the following information available:
 - building name
 - building address
 - room number
2. If emergency involves an unconscious/injured person
 - Ensure there is no danger to yourself or victim.
 - Do not move victim unless their life is endangered.
 - Remain with victim until help arrives.
3. Inform Supervisor or Department Head.

Emergency preparedness and response training is available through the department of Health, Safety and Environment. For more information on Emergency response, preparedness, and/or training, contact emergency_planning@hse.ubc.ca or 604-822-1237.

FIRE/ EXPLOSION

1. Pull Fire Alarm.
2. If possible, and without placing yourself or others in danger, control fire with the appropriate fire extinguisher.
3. Follow your Department Emergency/Fire Plan: evacuate, closing doors as you leave.
4. Meet at gathering site.
5. Call 911 and give further information.
6. Have someone meet the Fire Department outside the main entrance.
7. Do not re-enter building until Fire Department gives permission.
8. Inform Supervisor or Department Head.

CHEMICAL/ RADIATION/ BIOHAZARD EMERGENCIES

1. Close the door behind the spill and/or fire.
2. Call Hazardous Materials Response: 911
Be prepared to give the following information:
 - type of chemical or hazard
 - amount spilled
 - exact location of the spill (room number, building)Do not hang up until the operator releases you.
3. Call Campus Security: 604-822-2222
4. Inform Supervisor or Department Head.

FIRST AID

1. If a staff or faculty member is injured
Call Local First Aid Attendant or Call First Aid Line: 2-4444
Industrial First Aid Attendants will respond 24 hours/day.
2. If a student is injured call 911
Nurses at Student Health Services (Vancouver Hospital-UBC Site) are available for First Aid for Faculty and Staff during the following hours:

Mon, Tues, Wed, Fri:	08:00 - 16:00
Thurs :	09:00 - 16:00

During an emergency on campus, go to www.ubc.ca for official information.

BOMB THREATS

1. Remain calm, listen carefully to what the caller is saying and write it down. Keep the caller talking and obtain the following information:
 - a. Where is the bomb?
 - b. When will it explode?
 - c. What does it look like?
 - d. What kind of bomb is it?
 - e. What will cause it to explode?
 - f. Did you place the bomb? Why?
 - g. What is your name?
 - h. Where are you calling from?
2. Record the details such as time of call, whether caller was male or female, any distinctive voice characteristics (accent, manner, speech, whether voice was familiar), whether there were background noises or reference to local issues.
3. When the caller hangs up
 - a. Call RCMP: 911
 - b. Call Campus Security: 2-2222
 - c. Be prepared to give your name, phone number, and exact location with details of the threat.
 - d. Do not hang up until you are released by the authority talking to you.
 - e. Inform your Supervisor.
 - f. Stay where you are and ask your Department Head to meet with Police and Security when they arrive.
 - g. If you are in a multi-department building try to have other Department Heads or a delegate join you to meet with Police and Security.
 - h. Do not spread word of the threat as this should be handled by the authorities.

The Security Manager, in consultation with the RCMP and Building/ Department Head(s), will give the order to evacuate the building if necessary.

EARTHQUAKES

If you are inside a building

1. Resist the urge to run. Do not immediately leave the building as there is danger from falling debris.
2. Do not use elevators.
3. Move away from glass windows, partitions and objects with the potential to fall.
4. Take cover. Drop under a heavy desk or table. Hold onto the furniture.
5. If there are no tables or desks, brace yourself against an inside wall and cover your head and neck with your arms.
6. If in a wheelchair, lock wheels and duck as low as possible. Use anything to protect your head and neck.
7. Wait for the shaking to stop. Count to 60 to allow debris to finish falling.
8. Evacuate the building if there is major structural damage or fire hazard.
9. Prepare for aftershocks.

If you are outside

1. Move away from buildings, trees and powerlines.
2. Do not enter buildings.

If you are driving

1. Pull over. Leave the road clear for emergency vehicles and stay in your vehicle.
2. Do not stop on or under a bridge or overpass, or under powerlines.

During an emergency on campus, go to www.ubc.ca for official information.

10 UBC EMERGENCY PROCEDURES

www.emergency.ubc.ca

LOCKDOWNS

Upon Alert to Lockdown:

If you are in a classroom, room or office, stay there, secure the door and windows and await further instructions or escort from emergency personnel.

- If the door does not lock, consider barricading the door with tables and chairs.
- If you are in a corridor go into the closest office not already secured and lock or barricade the door and windows.
- Close curtains or blinds where possible.
- Stay away from windows and doors.
- Stay low and quiet.
- Cell phones should be put on quiet or vibrate mode. Do not make non-essential calls.

Actions to Avoid:

- Do not open the door once it has been secured until you are officially advised "all clear" or are certain it is emergency response personnel at the door.
- Do not use or hide in the washrooms.
- Do not travel down long corridors.
- Do not assemble in large open areas (e.g. cafeterias)
- Do not call 911 unless you have immediate concern for your safety, the safety of others, or feel you have critical information that will assist emergency personnel in the response.

Considerations:

- Follow instructions from emergency personnel only.
- During a lockdown, if the fire alarm is activated, remain where you are and await further instructions over a PA or portable loudspeaker.
- If possible, monitor www.ubc.ca for updates. Media reports may be unreliable.
- For their own safety, emergency personnel must consider all individuals as potential threats. It is important to follow instructions from police at all times to avoid harm and ensure the best possible response.

Following the Lockdown:

- Cooperate with emergency personnel to assist in an orderly evacuation.
- Proceed to the designated assembly area if advised.
- The police may require individuals to remain available for questioning following a lockdown.
- University staff may be present as you exit the building to provide additional information.

During an emergency on campus, go to www.ubc.ca for official information.

* Important information *

If you are calling 911 from a cell phone, you need to let the E-Comm operator know that you are at UBC and the address of the building you are located in. (911 calls are received at a call centre downtown – they will not be familiar with the building names on campus)

ADDITIONAL SAFETY RESOURCES

Campus Blue Light Phones:

NOT JUST FOR EMERGENCIES. Blue Light Phones are at various locations around campus. They provide you with direct phone access to Campus Security 24 hrs a day. For safety concerns, assistance or general information including directions, push the button once and Security will answer your call. Safety phones are also located in most campus elevators. These will also direct you to Campus Security.

Safewalk:

Why walk alone when you can call Safewalk? Safewalk is a foot patrol service that will accompany anyone between points on campus - free of charge! Look for the bright red jackets and signs around campus. Safewalk is a non-intervention service. For a walk, please call 604-822-5355

Campus Shuttles:

Campus Shuttles are provided by Translink. There is both a day and a night shuttle. For a schedule and routes please go to www.trek.ubc.ca

Sexual Assault Support Centre:

SASC provides access to free and confidential sexual assault support services at UBC. SASC provides information about your options and support your right to choose. If you choose, they can also accompany you to the hospital, police and courts. SASC also provides one-to-one counselling & community education and awareness sessions. SASC is a service of AMS. For more information call 604-827-5180.

WORKPLACE HAZARDOUS MATERIALS INFORMATION SYSTEM (WHMIS) 13

Hazard Symbol & Definition	Associated Hazards	Handling Information
Class A Compressed Gas 	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• an explosion hazard because the gas is being held in a cylinder under pressure• container can explode if heated in a fire• container may explode if dropped	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• do not drop cylinder• keep cylinder away from potential sources of ignition• store containers in a designated area
Class B Combustible and Flammable Material 	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• the material burns, and hence presents a fire hazard• may burn at relatively low temperatures; flammables will ignite at lower temperatures than combustibles• may burst into flame spontaneously in air, or release flammable gas on contact with water• may cause fire when exposed to heat, sparks, flames or friction	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• keep away from heat sources and oxidizing materials• never smoke in vicinity• store in cool, fire-proof area, as designated by supervisor
Class C Oxidizing Material 	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• poses fire/explosion risk in presence of Class B materials• may cause fire in presence of combustible materials such as wood• may react violently or cause explosion when contact with combustible materials such as fuels• May burn skin and eyes upon contact	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• keep away from flammable and combustible materials• store in designated area• keep away from ignition sources• Never smoke in vicinity• wear proper protective equipment such as eye, face, and hand protection, and protective clothing
Class D 1 Poisonous & Infectious materials; Causing immediate and serious toxic effects 	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• potentially fatal substances• may be fatal or cause permanent damage if inhaled, swallowed or absorbed into body• may burn eyes or skin upon contact	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• handle with extreme caution• avoid contact with skin or eyes; wear appropriate personal protective equipment and clothing• avoid inhaling; work in well-ventilated area and/or wear respiratory protection• wash and shower thoroughly after use• store in designated areas only
Class D 2 Causing Other Toxic Effects 	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• not immediately dangerous to health• may cause death or permanent damage as a result of repeated exposures over time• may be skin or eye irritant or sensitizer• may cause cancer• may cause reproductive or teratogenic effects	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• avoid eye, skin contact by using appropriate personal protective equipment and clothing• avoid inhaling; work in well-ventilated area and/or wear respiratory protection• store in designated areas
Class D 3 Biohazardous and Infectious Materials 	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• may cause a serious disease resulting in illness or death	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• take every precaution to avoid contamination• handle only when wearing necessary protective equipment• handle in designated areas only where appropriate engineering controls are in place
Class E Corrosive Material 	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• causes severe eye and skin irritation upon contact• causes severe tissue damage with prolonged contact• may be harmful if inhaled	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• keep containers tightly closed• avoid skin and eye contact by wearing eye, face and hand protection and protective clothing• avoid inhaling; work in well-ventilated area and/or wear respiratory protection
Class F Dangerously Reactive Material 	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• unstable; may react with water to release toxic or flammable gas• May explode as a result of shock, friction or increase in temperature• may undergo vigorous polymerization	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• keep away from heat• open containers carefully; do not drop• store material in designated cool, flame-proof area

UBC Information Technology (UBC IT) provides the University community with a full range of cost effective and reliable voice communications services. Telephone service can be provided with a wide variety of options and equipment tailored to your requirements. If you have any questions or would like to arrange a consultation, call UBC IT at 604-822-2555 or visit voice.ubc.ca.

CONSULTATION and ASSISTANCE

Service advisors are available to assist you in determining individual or departmental needs and recommending the best combination of UBC Voice services to meet those needs.

Examples of consulting services available include:

- integrated answering system for queuing calls, providing caller initiated routing to the appropriate local or to a voice mailbox, message taking, paging, after-hour announcements, etc.,
- consultation on interactive voice response systems,
- advice on the most effective telephone handset.

PAGERS

A variety of pagers are available on day-to-day and long term arrangements.

DIRECTORY LISTINGS

UBC Faculty and Administrative Directory entries are updated by departmental administrators across campus. To find out who your departmental administrator is:

Email ubc-directory@it.ubc.ca

Refer to <https://www.directory.ubc.ca/index.cfm?page=administrators>.

White and Yellow page listing changes can be done at any time during the year by your department administrator using the directory web page (directory.ubc.ca). Changes will be included in the next printed directory.

See page 20 for more detailed information.

800 SERVICE

UBC Voice Services can arrange for 800 Service which provides for pre-paid inward calling.

20 UPDATES TO THE UBC ON-LINE DIRECTORY

directory.ubc.ca

Instructions for Faculty and Staff

The UBC Faculty and Administrative Directory entries are available on-line at directory.ubc.ca. Updates to the white and yellow pages can be done at anytime during the year by your department administrator. The list of departments with their administrators contact information can be found at directory.ubc.ca. The list of directory administrators can be found through the "Add/Update your contact information" link in the left margin. If your department does not have a Directory Administrator, please contact ubc-directory@it.ubc.ca.

You can also do the following:

Update your entry

- Search for your name at directory.ubc.ca. At the bottom of your entry click "Request an update to this information" and complete the form. An email request will be sent to your department administrator to make the changes.

Delete your entry

- Search for your name at directory.ubc.ca. At the bottom of your entry click "Request an update to this information" and complete the form and add a comment with your request and why you want to be deleted from the directory. An email request will be sent to your department administrator to make the changes.

Add your entry

- Click on the "Add/Update your contact information" link in the left margin. Please click on "complete list of Directory Administrators" and contact the Directory Administrator for your department. If your department does not have a Directory Administrator, please email ubc-directory@it.ubc.ca with your request.

The department administrator will verify the information before making changes to the directory. You will receive a copy of the request by email if you have an email address listed.

Instructions for Department Administrators

As a department administrator you will receive all emails that request additions or changes to the white and yellow page listings for your department and it is your responsibility to ensure the information is correct and make the appropriate changes to the on-line directory.

Listed below are the requirements for you to access the on-line directory white and yellow page listings for your department.

- To access the on-line directory go to directory.ubc.ca and click on the "Directory Administrators Login" button.
- You will then use your CWL ID and password to logon (if you are having problems accessing your listings, contact UBC Directory Assistance at 604-822-2211, or email ubc-directory@it.ubc.ca).
- For faculty and/or staff that have multiple appointments they must be listed only once in the white pages. To ensure the listing are not duplicated for these appointments always do a search at directory.ubc.ca. If there is an existing listing contact the administrator of that department by doing an 'update the entry' (see above under instructions for Faculty and Staff).
- For more detailed instructions please log in as an Administrator at directory.ubc.ca and check the Help and Style Guide.

This on-line directory is used by the group that answers the calls for the main university number and the more up-to-date the listings are the easier it is for callers to reach the appropriate person and/or department in a timely manner.

Generic email service information (firstname.lastname@ubc.ca)

To set-up a new generic firstname.lastname@ubc.ca email address please follow the steps outlined in the previous page detailing how to add and update information in the UBC Online Directory.

At a minimum, one alias and one mailbox are required. Each entry is allowed up to three aliases and each alias must be in the form "firstname.lastname@ubc.ca". An example is shown below:

Alias	Mailbox
<input type="text" value="john.doe"/>
<input type="text" value="jon.doe"/>	<input type="text" value="jdoe@interchange.ubc.ca"/>
<input type="text" value="jonn.doe"/>

"@ubc.ca" will be added to the end of each alias. Send the request to your directory administrator by completing the form or sending him/her an email. Once your administrator enters the information in the directory, your aliases will begin to work within two hours. In the above example, any emails sent to "john.doe@ubc.ca" or "jon.doe@ubc.ca" or "jonn.doe@ubc.ca" will be automatically forward to "jdoe@interchange.ubc.ca".

Note: The mailbox must be a valid, functioning mailbox. Otherwise any emails sent to the @ubc.ca alias(es) will bounce back to the sender.

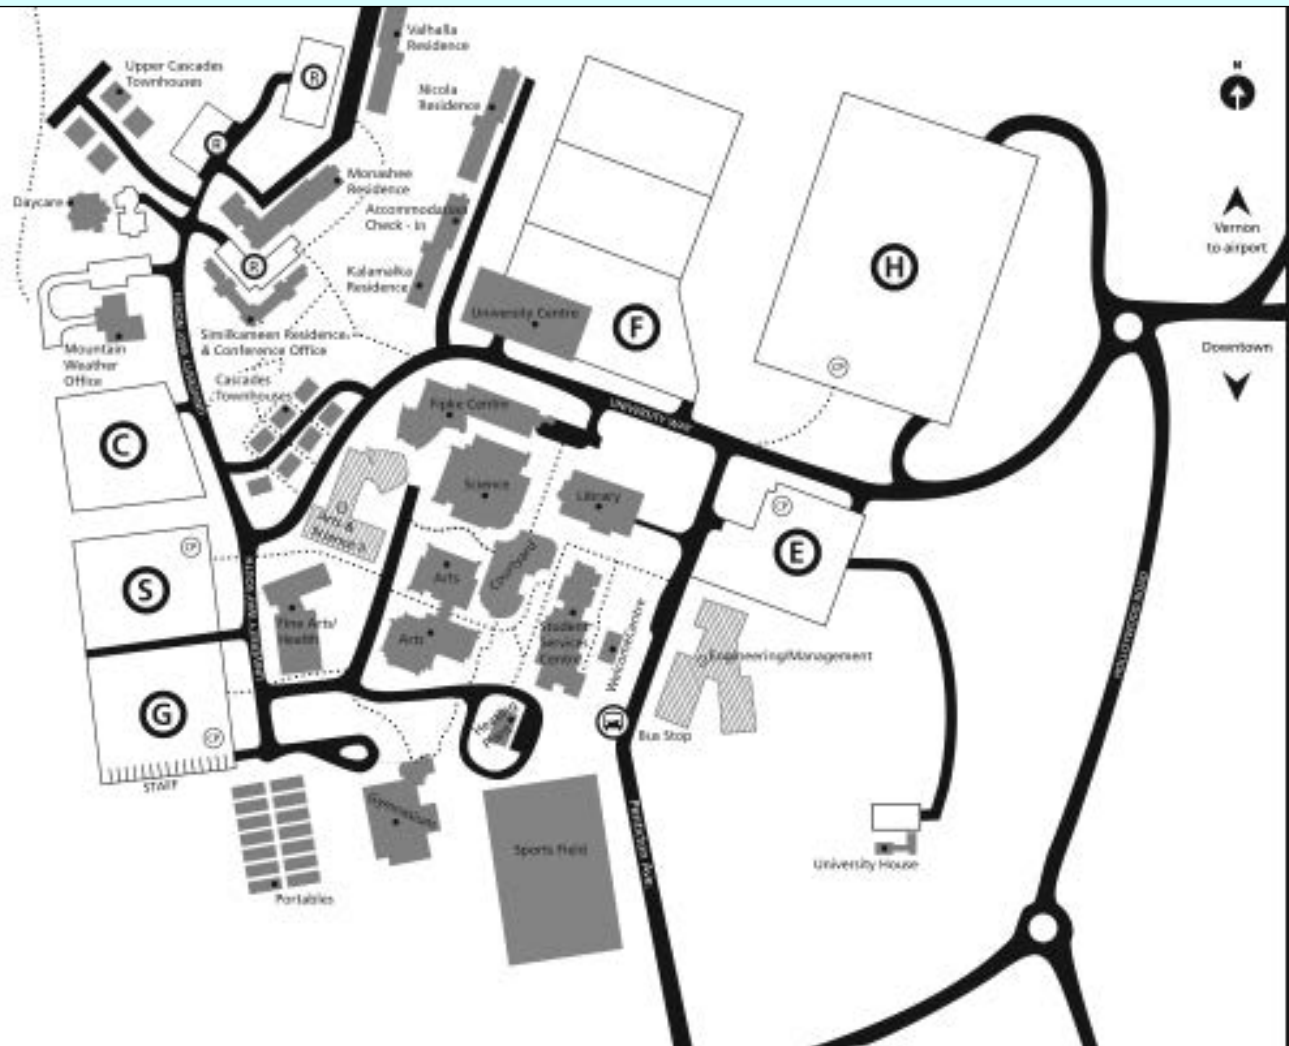

If you have any questions regarding your request, please contact your directory administrator directly. A current list of directory administrators is available online at www.directory.ubc.ca/index.cfm?page=administrators
